First Presbyterian Church Preschool and the Academy of Music follow the Norfolk Public Schools schedule for closings due to inclement weather and holidays.

About our teacher:

Claudia Wootton is a native Virginian returning to the Academy of Music after finishing graduate school in St.Louis and work in Seattle. She has been teaching for 16 years since graduating from Virginia Commonwealth University where she studied voice and education. Her passion and exuberance for music has lead to teaching all ages (from infants to adult) a variety of musical disciplines. Her previous work experience includes teaching music at First Presbyterian Pre-School and leading worship at Trinity Presbyterian Church.

The Academy of Music is Hampton Roads' only independent non-profit community music school that is accredited by the National Guild of Community Schools of the Arts. Our mission is to provide quality music instruction to the residents of Hampton Roads, regardless of their ability to pay. Founded in 1991, The Academy of Music offers private and group instruction for most instruments and voice. Our instructors are highly trained professionals and include members of the Virginia Symphony and other leading ensembles. The Academy's offerings are designed for all ages and skill levels. In 2000, The Academy of Music was fully certified by the National Guild of Community Schools of the Arts after meeting its rigorous evaluation criteria. The Guild provides leadership and advocacy for some 300 schools of the arts across the country, sets quality standards and promotes public awareness of the value of arts education.

The Academy of Music is funded in part by grants from the Virginia Commission for the Arts and the Norfolk Commission for the Arts and Humanities.
